Missile Can Be Fired In Emergency

Pickets Virtually Tie Up Activity At Atlas Bases

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Union picket lines virtually halted activity today at bases that test and launch the Atlas—the United States' powerful counterpunch in case of war.

The Atlas, only operational long-range U.S. missile, still could be fired in an emergency from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., the only base with combat-ready Atlas facilities.

But the strike, by a comparatively few key technicians against the Convair division of General Dynamics Corp., stopped or crippled construction of new Atlas launching sites.

The strike was called at midnight Sunday by International Assn. of Machinists. However, another 25,000 IAM workers at plants here which make the big missile voted to go on working because large scale strikes are too costly.

Five bases were idled when many other union workers refused to cross IAM picket lines.

They were: Vandenberg AFB, whose war-ready pads and gantries are located on a windy mesa and beach 160 miles north of Los Angeles. Cape Canaveral, Fla., the Atlantic missile range that recently sent an Atlas zooming 9,000 miles to the tip of Africa in a test shot.

Warren AFB, Wyo., and Offutt AFB, Neb., where Atlas launch pads are near completion.

Holloman AFB, N.M., where local issues are involved.

The strike—first major work stoppage in the aircraft-missile industry—had serious overtones. A tie-up of a majority of the industry's plants could result if the union asks a 14-cent hourly wage boost and fringe benefits. Machinists rejected as inadequate Convair's offer of an 11-cent hourly raise and a 3-cent cost-of-living hike. The wage scale now ranges from $1.79 to $3.40.

Convair, at its San Diego headquarters, said 2,375 of a total IAM work force of about 3,600 failed to report for work.

Reports from the bases said upwards of 5,200 workers were idle. The union said it had no exact figures, but termed the strike "effective."

Both Convair and the IAM stood ready to resume negotiations.

Federal Mediator E. Marvin Sconyers called the next bargaining session for 2 p.m. PDT Wednesday.

Rejected Spy Plane Idea In 1949-50, Truman Says

CHICAGO (AP)—A robust Harry S. Truman, harking back to his seven years in the White House, says he and Secretary of State Dean Acheson turned down a suggestion that the United States send spy planes over Soviet territory.

"I didn't think it was right," he told newsmen Monday. "Espionage is a dirty business. I didn't want to be a part of it."

He said he and Acheson rejected the State Department idea in 1949 or 1950. Asked whether he made use of espionage information while president, Truman said, "I suppose so. Reports came to my desk about things that were going on."

But he refused to express an opinion on President Eisenhower's role in the U2 spy plane incident, and offered his sympathy to the White House in the face of recent Soviet tirades.

(The New York Times quoted Acheson as saying in Washington that he advised Truman to reject the suggested use of spy planes "because I did not think the possible results justified the risks." Acheson was quoted as adding that he did not think the equipment available at the time was adequate to the task.)

Truman, 76, ruddy and spry—soberly condemned the denunciations of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and chided unnamed Americans as he warned a large audience the world is "in serious trouble."

He told a gathering of bookellers and publishers:

"The brutal and boorish tirade by Khrushchev directed at the person of the President of the United States has the sinister purpose of undermining the prestige of the office of the president in the eyes of the world."

He called the Khrushchev blasts "an offense to the whole free world."

He added, "My instinctive reaction would incline me to be sympathetic to the occupant of the White House when he is involved in a conflict with a foreign power and under personal attack by that power."

Truman suggested that "certain people would be wise to avoid criticizing our country in a manner and language that would favorably impress the public."

He would not name the "certain people."

Woman Motorist Fined In Right-Of-Way Case

A woman motorist was fined $10 and costs today in Municipal Court on a charge she made a left turn off Market St. onto W. 5th St. about noon Monday without yielding the right-of-way to oncoming traffic and pedestrians who were crossing W. 5th.

Mrs. Rita J. Jones, 1817 Michigan Ave., pleaded guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on charges filed by Patrolman William E. McDaniel. The judge suspended the fine on payment of the $6 costs.

Mrs. Jones told the judge she made the left turn when the traffic light changed because the driver of the first oncoming car "hesitated" as though to allow her time to make the turn.

New York City Drops 200,000 In Population

NEW YORK (AP)—New York City's population has dropped by 200,000 since 1950, a preliminary census report indicated today.

The final figure is expected to be 7,700,000. In 1950 the figure was 7,891,957. A special count by the Census Bureau three years ago showed a population of 7,795,471.

Arthur F. Young, regional census director, said the indicated decrease is 3 per cent since 1950 and 1.8 per cent since 1957. The trend toward suburban living was given as the cause.

Liverpool, who was graduated in 1952 and for the last 7 years has been employed by the American Paper Products Co., now located in Boardman, was appointed as a high school secretary effective June 16.

The Board also approved a boost in the daily pay of Mrs. Eileen Deyarmon, a cafeteria worker at Westgate, from $8.50 to $10 for the period from May 9 to the end of the term.

The board received a report of the annual enumeration which shows 5,806 children between the ages of 5 and 18, including 500 who will begin school in September and 19 who have working certificates.

It is a drop of 109 from the 5,915 enumerated in 1959 when there were 551 scheduled to begin school and 26 with working certificates.

The peak year was in 1956 when the enumeration showed 6,694. In 1950, some 5,291 enumerated.

The board approved the purchase of $1,680 worth of science equipment under the National Defense Act in which the board pays 50 per cent of the cost and is reimbursed by the government or the remainder.

The equipment includes 4 microscopes worth $112.50 and one for $271 for the biology department; an opaque projector for elementary science with the Neville Home and School Association paying the board's share of the $326 cost and a graph for junior high science.

The remainder of the equipment will be used in the physics laboratory. It includes two Harvard trip balances, two electrosopes, a universal sonometer, a dozen convex lens, a dozen equilateral prisms, a dozen right-angle prisms, six index refractor plates, two galvanometers, two voltmeters, six pairs of ceramic magnets and two spectrometers.

The board's share of the total cost will be $677.15.

Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk-treasurer, reported a balance of $159,254.32 in school funds, including $154,389.02 in the general fund. The other balances include: $5,855.65, cafeteria; $4,805.10, improvement; $15, firemen training; $139.60, carpenter training; $16.50, for men training, and $221.13, night school.

There are deficits of $5,610.69 in the bond retirement fund and $586.04 in the workbook account, she said.

The board agreed to postpone its next meeting from June 20 to June 27 because some members will be out of town. It also will skip the regular meeting scheduled July 4, setting the meeting back to July 18.

Supt. Ralph W. Betts said he expects to be ready to submit recommendations for salary increases for other school personnel at the meeting June 27. Teachers were granted salary increases at a special meeting May 26.

Betts also told board members the final hearing on the plans for the proposed city freeway from the California Hollow city limits to Monroe and W. 3rd Sts. will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in Council chambers in City Hall.

normally requires less than 10 minutes.

East Liverpool had 5 extra policemen on duty to help cope with the jam and to reroute heavy trucks because of the 10-ton load limit on the Newell span. Hancock County deputies helped handle the jam on the West Virginia side.

The jam began to build up around 3 yesterday afternoon when potteries started the homeward rush from plants on the West Virginia side and racing fans headed for Waterford Park. As autos backed up along W. 5th St. from the Newell Bridge, they blocked cross streets such as Monroe St., Jefferson St. and Jackson St. Inter-city traffic on Route 30, normally routed across the Chester Bridge, also was funneled across the Newell span—adding to the jam.

Re-routing of heavy trucks went off without a hitch. Police Chief Americo Radeschi said. Trucks over 10 tons were offered the alternative of detouring to the nearest spans at Steubenville or Monaca or laying over until the Chester Bridge reopened. None chose the lay-over.

Mrs. Ralph Hickman, co-leader, presented the wings and Mrs. Smith invested them.

Council Enacts Gas Measure

and then service is restored later at the same premises for the same customer. Before the gas is turned on again, the customer may be charged the minimum rate of $2.65 for the time he was without service, up to a maximum of 6 months, the ordinance provides.

At the time the new minimum charge was discussed by Council and Ohio Valley executives in January, councilmen remarked some customers have made a practice of having their service turned off with the advent of warm weather and then having the supply restored in the fall, saving the minimum charge during the summer.

In reply to questions from councilmen last night, the solicitor said the investigation during the rate discussions showed that the persons who made a practice of having their gas turned off in the summer time were those who use gas furnaces throughout the winter, then rely on electricity for cooking and water-heating in the summer. The practice is not followed so much by old-age pensioners as by families of normal income who use gas furnaces, he said.

Since gas rates are fixed by levying charges on all consumers that will produce the return on its investment to which the company is entitled by law, rates would have to be raised for other consumers if some customers escaped the minimum charge in summer, he said.

Melvin remarked that he does not feel "that anyone was trying to pull anything over on anyone by having their gas turned off in the summer."

"I feel it was done only by people who needed the money and had to think of ways to conserve every penny," he said.

Seavers recalled that in the discussion with the utility executives it was brought out that summer service generally is discontinued by gas heating customers, not by pensioners.

The company explained at the time that it has fixed charges that mean that it costs the company a certain minimum amount to maintain its lines to all homes, whether or not any service is furnished," he added.

Then Seavers pointed out that Council appropriated $2,000 to help fight the company's original application for a rate increase of approximately 17 per cent. The settlement cut the raise from an average of 17 per cent to about 12½ per cent, he said. Some of the $2,000 fund remains and it will be used to carry the fight before the Federal Power Commission on rates charged for gas from continental gas line companies which are then passed on to local concerns such as Ohio Valley, he added.

"Regardless of whether we pass this ordinance tonight, the rate is in effect—it was approved by the PUC," he concluded.

Benjamin Ziegler of Ohio Ave., a former councilman, urged Council strongly not to approve the ordinance's minimum charge clause, declaring it "gives the company the right to charge for service it does not furnish."

"Haven't the people a right to economize?" he asked. "If they furnish no service, is it right for them to charge you? Can you find anything more rotten than that?"

"I could stop my newspaper delivery and save 42 cents a week and then when I started the newspaper service again the newspaper could charge me 42 cents a week for every week I didn't get the paper," Ziegler said. "That's just as bad."

He related the story of gas rate negotiations in which he participated about 25 years ago as a member of Council. He said he can recall that when gas service first was furnished in 1896, the company charged $1 a month for a gas stove in summer and $1.50 in winter. There were no meters, he explained.

"I hope you'll have guts enough to quash that 'minimum charge,'" Ziegler said. "Don't give it any consideration at all. Tell them to go to hell!"

More than 77 million Americans today are wearing eyeglasses.

streets have been improved, Cooper said.

He said the federal agency brought up the question of repayment last year with the administration of former Mayor Fred P. Lawrence. Lawrence was attempting to reach a compromise settlement on the amount of the repayment, although "the bill was news to him, too," Cooper related.

The Lawrence request for a compromise was taken under advisement by the federal agency, which was to let the city know its decision, he added. But no further word was received.

"This demand for payment is as much a surprise to me as anyone," the solicitor said. He pointed out that the city has borrowed federal funds on other occasions to finance planning. For instance, to plan the sewage treatment plant, the city received $24,000, which since has been repaid, he said.

Another loan was received to finance planning of the Beechwood sewer project and it has been repaid or is in the process of being repaid, he said.

Cooper said records show that the plans in question were prepared and were approved at the time by Council. He said the planning funds were obtained shortly after the end of World War II, covering several proposed street improvement projects.

Freedom Of The Press Day

Today has been declared "Freedom of the Press Day" by the Inter-American Press Assn. It is intended to re-emphasize the incontrovertible necessity of a free press in a democracy.

It has been pointed out in these columns many times that where a governmental regime intends to stifle individual enterprise in order to perpetuate its own interests, it starts by stifling the free press. Where a reform regime seeks to re-establish democratic processes, it begins by freeing the press from the fetters of governmental control.

There are some glowing examples of both in the Western Hemisphere, where the Inter-American Press Assn. operates.

Fidel Castro is an example of a boss who has consistently moved toward dictatorship by seizing, one by one, all of the newspapers critical of him.

The governments of Venezuela, Peru, Colombia and Argentina are examples of regimes which have moved closer to true democracy by permitting the operation of a free press.

An Echo Of Hitlerism

Ever since Adolf Hitler ran amuck, reasonable men have asked themselves in quiet desperation what would happen if a new Hitler howled in the dim corridors of human civilization. Would they know how to stop him?

There is no answer.

The Germans, themselves, now say Hitlerism was mass insanity. They speak of its excesses as little as possible and have tried to make atonement for them.

They say they were helpless under the spell of their leader's paranoid frenzy; that they were sick at heart about the blood bath he was seeking, but that they were unable to curb him and the savage men who dominated them.

One of those men, Adolf Eichmann, has been captured by the state of Israel, which will make him stand trial for his key role in the mass murder of six million Jews during the Hitlerian assault on human dignity. It will be empty justice now; the Jews are dead; the damage cannot be undone. It's always too late when the damage has been done.

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV is not an Adolf Hitler.

His complete possession of his faculties and his cold objectivity as a leading figure in the Communist conspiracy never have been questioned.

He is sane. He is shrewd. But he is capable of unleashing as great a mischief in the world as Hitler unleashed if the exigencies of his position require him to speak and act irrationally.

Giving A Helping Hand

Traditional American solicitude for overseas friends who have fallen victim to natural or man-caused disasters is being expressed again in aid for thousands of Chileans injured or made ill or homeless by recent earthquakes.

Emergency supplies and assistance have already been sent, but more are needed and long range recovery programs must be planned for the stricken people to put them back on their feet.

Among the organizations working in Chile are the Red Cross, Catholic Relief Service, Church World Service, CARE, Seventh Day Adventists Welfare Service and Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The Once Over

Every time we hear an airplane overhead we think it may be Ike on another trip. Who remembers a way back when White House was first place you looked to find a president of the U.S.?

Question "Is this trip necessary?" was never on more lips than today. Seldom has there been a time in history when a president's nose was needed closer to the grindstone and we don't mean a flying grindstone.

"If there is any place Ike not needed now, it's Okinawa," declared Mortimer Topblower today. "And that goes for Japan, Korea, the Philippines and Formosa. Washington, D.C., needs him. There's enough for him to do in Pennsylvania Avenue, the home ball park and the main office."

"This is no time for worry over who's minding the store. It can't be minded from a jet plane zooming around the Far East. In an hour of crisis no headman looks good in a free balloon."

"I agree with Walter Lippman that Ike's place is on the job, sleeves rolled up, papers within easy reach and no jet plane, battleship or bubbeltop Cadillac in sight. It's screwy to think Ike is not doing a job unless he has both feet off ground and is fiddling with a safety belt."

"The builders of America would have thrown a fit if Washington had been on a trip to Japan in time of peril or if Abe Lincoln had been somewhere over the China Sea at the time of Fort Sumter threats."

"Not even in Woodrow Wilson's day did the question 'Where's the President?' bring answer 'We can't be sure until we hear from the air service.'

"The President is a man not a bird, a space cadet, a shooting star or a stunt flier. He should be conserving his energies, sticking to office and taking no chances in areas of weird behavior."

"What about argument and the trip is needed to restore American prestige?" we asked.

"Bunk," snapped Mortimer. "If U.S. and Tradition has bequeathed a particular, talismanic gem to each country in the world. Thus, England has the diamond, France the ruby, Germany the hematite, Ireland the emerald, Italy the sardonyx, Japan the jade, China the pearl, Spain the turquoise, and America the tourmaline."

Hard To Do On A Dead Run

Red Spies Retain Legal Rights

By Victor Riesel

Here is the line between sadism and civilization.

Our spy, Francis Gary Powers, is in solitary confinement. He has been dazed by injections of sodium pentothal — the truth serum.

Their spy, Col. Rudolph Ivanovich Abel of the Soviet Security Service, is in the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary in good health and thoroughly adjusted to the routine and privileges extended to all other inmates.

Much of his time is spent in the prison's drafting and commercial art departments. There Abel can use his skills as a commercial photographer.

He enjoys his work. In the drafting division he helps make plans for repairs and construction inside the walls. He designs posters for inner prison use. He does no physical labor.

He is not sweated for information. He has it. He used three short wave radios for regular secret communication with the Soviet intelligence forces for years. We would like the colonel's knowledge. But he has complete freedom to speak or not.

ABEL IS ENTITLED to an approved list of visitors — relatives or the nearest Soviet consul or even the ambassador. But they have abandoned him.

Our ambassador in the U.S.S.R. has tried for weeks to exercise his diplomatic right to visit Francis Powers.

No, it is the line between sadism and civilization at thin one. It is a broad stroke.

Take the case of Irving Potash. Years ago he was deported as an undesirable after being convicted of conspiring against the United States. He was — and is — a top official of the American section of the Communist International.

Potash reported to his bureau in Moscow after he was deported. He was assigned to China. He was shifted to Poland, his birthplace. Then he slipped back into the United States. The FBI picked him up. He served two years in Atlanta.

When he was released, the Immigration and Naturalization Service tried to deport him again. No country would accept him. We did not imprison him or dump him somewhere beyond our borders.

Potash got the full measure of the law, which says that if no country will accept him, he is free to move about in the judicial district where he was tried. This is the Southern District of New York.

Comrade Potash now is under supervisory parole. He may not go out of the district. But he is national labor secretary of the National Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A., which takes its instructions from the Central Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.S.R. He can conspire against us, but there is no law, apparently, to stop him.

THIS AMUSES HIM. Late in March, for example, Potash broke parole. He had helped to plan a secret meeting of the Communist Party high command — the National Committee.

This was set for Chicago some 500 miles from the line beyond which he was ordered not to go.

But he went. He sat in on the meetings. They were held in the Midwest Hotel, 6 Hamlin St., Chicago. The National Committee met for three days beginning March 25.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Steps were taken to increase the membership from 25 to 33 in the drum and bugle corp of the Midland American Legion Post 481.

Miss Freda May Johnston of Smiths Ferry was one of the first graduates at Midland High School to complete the high school course in three and a half years.

Incorporation papers were issued at Columbus to the McNutt Printing Co. of East Liverpool.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — A three-foot section of an old fence rail held firmly by the limb of a big elm tree, was found on the J.W. Hammond farm, Yellow Creek Township.

Mrs. M. D. McCutcheon, second vice president of the Columbian

County Public Health League, was named a member of the board of the Ohio Public Health Association.

TEN YEARS AGO — Tap Day netted $145 for the Exchange Club in its campaign to make up a $600 deficit in the Hot Stove League operating funds.

A 10 per cent reduction in rates for auto collision insurance became effective with most firms operating in East Liverpool and Wellsville.

The United States Coast Guard will celebrate its 170th birthday in August of this year. It was organized originally as an anti-smuggling fleet.

National Cynicism

By David Lawrence

Patriotism Missing In Some U.S. Areas

Time was when in the midst of war neither scribe nor politician ventured to give aid and comfort to the enemy. Time was when the citizen felt a tingle of emotion go up and down his spine as he sang the Star-Spangled Banner or saluted the Flag.

Time was when the nation found itself in peril nothing else mattered. No sacrifice — even of life itself — was too great to make for the honor of our country.

Things seem to be different now. The President of the United States is insulted and yet some writers continue to furnish aid and comfort to the press of the Soviet Union by denouncing Mr. Eisenhower and holding him culpable for errors he couldn't possibly have avoided and still protect the safety of the American people against surprise attack.

Is the country changing? Is patriotism just an obsolete notion nurtured only by those of us who have witnessed manifestations of national spirit and pride over a long span of years?

Are some of us old-fashioned because we cannot accept the modern cynicism which insists that a president of the United States shall be pilloried by political leaders and by some segments of the press of his own country as Moscow papers reprint every bit of captious and carping criticism?

GRASS-roots Americanism today resents bitterly the insults flung at the President of the United States. It resents attacks on Mr. Eisenhower in the American press which the next day are parroted and quoted with exultation in the Soviet press.

There was a satirical effort to put the label of selfishness on the men who had to leave their families and jobs and go to war. But when the United States entered World War II in 1941 this same generation acquitted itself nobly. No better troops ever fought for America than those who battled in World War II.

Grass-roots Americanism today resents bitterly the insults flung at the President of the United States. It resents attacks on Mr. Eisenhower in the American press which the next day are parroted and quoted with exultation in the Soviet press.

IT SO HAPPENS that Mr. Eisenhower was the supreme commander of Allied Forces in World War II.

He helped to save the Soviet Union from the yoke of Hitler. The American people between 1941 and 1945 sent billions of dollars to help equip the Soviet armies. When the war was over, Gen. Eisenhower was received with acclaim in Moscow. But Nikita Khrushchev now says Mr. Eisenhower is fit only to manage a home for children. Recently he called the President a "thief."

It begins to look as if Nikita Khrushchev is resentful of all military men but he has misjudged public opinion everywhere if he thinks he can belittle not only the President of the United States but the very general who helped Russia in the winning of World War II.

The Soviet Premier, to be sure, has lost whatever prestige he may have had in the West. He has forfeited an opportunity for effective leadership as a negotiator with the West.

He has really betrayed his own country for the people of the Soviet Union don't want war and when they get all the facts they will not long support a man who acts more like an uncivilized boor than like the dignified premier of a government which professes to represent a great people.

Mr. K Like A Fishwife

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

President Eisenhower is just the latest in a long list of people denounced by Nikita Khrushchev.

The Soviet Premier calls names like a fishwife over a back fence. The older he gets, the fishier he sounds.

Over the past few years the Soviet leader has run up quite a record, particularly against people with whom he had had some friendly personal relations.

In 1956 he visited Britain, dined with the British Laborites, was asked by them to free 200 imprisoned Social Democrats in eastern Europe, and returned home to denounce them as the lackeys of communism.

That same year at a Moscow banquet attended by Gen. Nathan F. Twining, U.S. Air Force chief, Khrushchev reportedly drank heavily, insulted various Western military officials present, and was told by the then premier, Nikolai Bulganin, to shut up.

That was quite a year for Khrushchev. He shocked the world and shook international communism to its roots by denouncing his late boss, Joseph Stalin, as a murderer.

In 1957 he got rid of a whole batch of his old Communist cronies — the Molotov-Malenkov-Kaganovich set — by getting them bounced from the Presidium and into oblivion.

The next year, 1958, he gave his old traveling companion, Premier Bulganin, the ax and took his job.

He visited Marshal Tito, seemed to get along dandy with him, and in the end excoriated him as a "renegade."

In between times, he belittled Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and gave Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Minnesota Democrat, an 8-hour interview in the Kremlin.

Early in 1959 Humphrey, reporting on that visit, said Khrushchev had been critical of Red China, the Soviets' big ally, for its communist system.

Where's Reds' Famed Power?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Where is the famous Cincinnati Red bat? The note was sent after a writer of rumors about Eichmann's capture prompted Argentine President Arturo Frondizi to order an investigation and to ask Israeli Ambassador Arie Levavi for a full explanation.

The note gave this sketchy account of events leading up to Eichmann's capture:

When World War II ended, a band of Jewish volunteers began a search for Eichmann that extended through Europe, the Middle East and finally Latin America.

Yet, Manager Fred Hutchinson said Monday, "We've got to get some hitting."

The Reds have put only 18 runs across in eight games since starting the current road trip.

And they've dropped out of sight among the National League batting leaders.

Frank Robinson batted .338 in those eight games and catcher Ed Bailey's hot stick cooled off to a .314 gait.

Vada Pinson is the only Redleg slugger doing reasonably well—.314.

Eddie Kasko, who had to fight for his job at third base this spring and still gets shifted around the infield when needed, is the only other consistent regular, batting .308.

The team batting slump was grave enough for Hutch to juggle his lineups drastically at Milwaukee Sunday. The Reds split a doubleheader that day but got only four runs.

Improvement is needed immediately for Cincinnati opens a six-game West Coast stand tonight against the Giants.

Jay Hook is scheduled to pitch against San Francisco's Johnny Antonelli.

The Reds move down to Los Angeles Friday.

Due Gas Tax Money

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state will distribute $2,822,400 to local governments Thursday from gasoline tax money. State Auditor James A. Rhodes announced. The distribution will mean $1,760,500 for county highways at the rate of $20,000 to each county, and $1,062,500 for township roads at the rate of $800 to each township.

Ohio Spends 1 1/2 Billion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state spent almost 1 1/2 billion dollars in the 11-month period ended May 31, State Auditor James A. Rhodes announced Monday. The exact figure was $1,476,021,705.89. This was $5,142,578.31 more than over-all revenues, which totaled $1,470,879,127.58.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Another construction project will get under way in about 10 days at the 35 million dollar Southgate Shopping Center in suburban Maple Heights. The new addition, to include five office buildings, will cost an estimated 6.5 million dollars.

Freeway Plan Review Slated

City, state and federal officials have scheduled an all-day meeting Wednesday in the Council Chamber at City Hall for final review of the plans for a California Highway-West End freeway.

The conference will include officials of the Federal Bureau of Public Roads; representatives of the Columbus and New Philadelphia offices of the State Highway Department, City Engineer George S. Bloomgren and spokesman for Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester, the engineering concern which prepared the plans under contract with the city.

The note expressed regret over any infringement of Argentine sovereignty but said the extraordinary nature of the case justified Israel's determination to bring Eichmann to trial on charges of complicity in the murder of six million Jews by the Hitler regime.

The note included the text of a letter it said Eichmann gave his captors stating that he was going to Israel of his own free will.

It said in part: "Since my true identity is known, I realize that it makes no sense to continue hiding from justice. I declare that I am disposed to travel to Israel to present myself there before a competent tribunal.

"I make this declaration by my own will. I have not been promised anything, nor have I been threatened."

The note was sent after a writer of rumors about Eichmann's capture prompted Argentine President Arturo Frondizi to order an investigation and to ask Israeli Ambassador Arie Levavi for a full explanation.

The note gave this sketchy account of events leading up to Eichmann's capture:

When World War II ended, a band of Jewish volunteers began a search for Eichmann that extended through Europe, the Middle East and finally Latin America.

Some months ago the pursuers learned that Eichmann, now 54, was living in Argentina.

The searchers ferreled out Eichmann's address, learned his alias and closed in.

Angered Doctor Kills Ex-Associate For Loss Of Job

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP)—An angered doctor took revenge for the loss of his job Monday by killing former associate and firing several shots at his one-time senior partner.

Police said Dr. Anthony Ruvolo, 37, laid a shotgun ambush for two former partners several hours after he had been dismissed from the medical group they had formed.

He ran down his quarry in the parking lot of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, killing Dr. Annunziata La Face, 35. The head of the group, Dr. Francis Merlo, 51, jumped over a 5-foot wall and ducked into an entrance to the hospital as Ruvolo fired wildly at him several times.

Ruvolo then threw aside his double-barreled shotgun and sped off in his sedan. A hospital employee noted the license number and told police. They picked up Ruvolo 16 minutes later at a road block.

He was taken to headquarters for questioning and held on an open charge.

Check On Spending

WASHINGTON (AP)—Stricter checks of expenses of members of traveling congressional committees "will be in order from now on," says Rep. Clarence J. Brown (R-Ohi). The Blanchester (Clinton County) representative was referring to charges made in a series of newspaper articles on expense accounts of House members.

In a letter to constituents Monday, Brown said he is "not involved."

Talks Collapse In Broadway Stage Dispute

NEW YORK (AP)—Negotiations for a quick end to the Broadway stage blackout have collapsed. Actors and producers both report a hopeless deadlock over wage demands.

The breakdown Monday night climaxed a day of mercurial ups and downs. No new talks were scheduled.

The day started with high hopes that an agreement on an actors' pension plan, at first considered the key issue, would settle the contract fight that has kept 22 theaters dark since last Thursday.

Optimism soared as representatives of the League of New York Theaters and Actors Equity carried talks into the first night session of the stalemate.

But hopes crashed when both sides, after agreeing that producers and theater owners would share the cost of actors' pensions, moved on to the wage issue.

Representatives of producers announced they could not meet Equity's demands and walked out.

Equity asked for a weekly wage minimum of $118 the first year, $118 the second and third years with a $4 cost of living increase in the last year of a three-year contract.

The league countered with a flat $110 a week offer. The present minimum is $103.50.

Chester Band Mothers Elect

Mrs. Herman Wilson was elected president of the Purple and Gold Band Mothers at a meeting Monday night at the Chester High School. She succeeds Mrs. Alton Johnson.

Others named were Mrs. Edward Murray, vice president; Mrs. Dale Hoyt, secretary, and Mrs. James Morris, treasurer.

The President spent the major part of his time since Saturday renewing friendships and talking over old times and campaigns.

Eisenhower originally intended to return to Washington Monday night, but put off the trip until today rather than cut short a class reception and dinner.

He has no more trips to West Point scheduled before he retires as president seven months from now. He and the other 103 survivors of the 161 graduates of '15 are planning another reunion in 1965.

Eisenhower observed Alumni Day Monday with a nostalgic and energetic tour of the academy and participation in colorful June Week ceremonies.

He commented that his first thought in the morning was that it was the 16th anniversary of D-Day.

"Well, I don't have to live that day over, anyhow," he said with apparent relief.

The five Latin American capital cities which have greater populations than Washington are Buenos Aires, Mexico City, Montevideo, Rio de Janeiro and Santiago.

Ike Winds Up Reunion With 'Point' Mates

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Old soldier Dwight Eisenhower today concluded a sentimental reunion with his Military Academy class of 1915—probably his last visit to the Point as president.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I came to this city from Lincoln, Neb., to get a job as a receptionist. I couldn't get exactly what I wanted so I settled for a waitress job in a cocktail lounge.

Many public relations and advertising executives come in and they are a smart, classy-looking bunch. Yesterday one of the friendlier ones asked me right out why a girl with such beautiful legs was doing waitress work. He said he could get me a job as a shoe model and suggested we talk it over.

I want to get out of the waitress line as the hours are hard and the pay isn't too good. I have no one here to talk this over with. The only thing that makes me wonder is why he didn't suggest I come to his office to talk about it. He wants to come to my place.

I've heard of girls getting discovered this way but I never dreamed it could happen to me. Is it worth the chance?—EXCITED

Dear Excited: So you never dreamed it could happen to you? Well—it could and it will if you're not careful. Wake up and quit dreaming, girl. The model routine is strictly off the cob.

Professional agencies have a mile-long list of girls with beautiful legs who are stepping all over each other to get work. Businessmen discuss business in offices.

So Long, Loretta

Dear Ann: I'm almost 20 and very much in love with a girl 15. She is mature mentally and physically.

Her mother dislikes me because she says I'm too old for Loretta. I say she is mistaken. Love has nothing to do with age.

Yesterday afternoon Loretta asked me to pick her up at school during lunch hour and take her for a ride. Then she suggested

Plans to appoint a constitution committee for a new St. Clair Township improvement group were made at a meeting of the Calcutta Area Improvement Association Monday night at the Calcutta fire station.

A delegation from the Glenmoor Development Association attended the meeting at which Emil Dominick outlined plans for extending the programs of both groups to include the whole township in a consolidation move.

W. A. Black, president of the Calcutta group, and Martin Christen of the Glenmoor unit, are to appoint four members from each association to a committee which will prepare a constitution for the new group.

Dean Wilhelm spoke about a statewide meeting on regional planing at Columbus June 1 which he and Black attended.

Wilhelm said a regional planning program for Columbiana County would cost some $55,000 with half to be borne by the state. The county's share would cost only 25 cents per capita he said.

A program could be inaugurated by one incorporated community applying to the program. He said zoning regulations would have to be submitted to a vote, but planning procedures would not.

Wilhelm said planning programs are needed for this area to meet the problems of water requirements, sewage needs and to provide for the anticipated influx of population with new road and industrial expansion.

Riding in the bombardier-navigator's compartment of a North American Aviation A3J Vigilante, Miss Cochran racked up another feminine first when the craft streaked through the sky over Columbus at more than 1,300 m.p.h.

Several years ago the aviator personally was piloting an F86 when she became the first woman to fly Mach 1—the speed of sound.

In Monday's flight, North American's flight test manager, James Pearce, was at the controls when the slim Vigilante took off from Port Columbus. It reached Mach 2 speed on a level run at a height of more than eight miles.

The Vigilante, built by North American's Columbus plant, is a carrier-based attack weapon system.

The only woman solo pilot to win first in the Bendix Transcontinental Trophy races, Miss Cochran holds most of the important U.S. and world speed records for propeller-powered aircraft and holds women's speed records for jet aircraft for 100 and 500 kilometer flights.

Members of the Pittsburgh Sky Divers Club, the two will make jumps from a plane at approximately 9 tomorrow night. One high-level and one low-level jump will be made.

First Berries Due This Week

The "fruit of the week" is the local crop of strawberries, reports Ed Watkins, Market Information Agent with the Agricultural Extension Service.

Locally-grown berries should be available in small quantity by the end of this week with the bulk of the crop being available during the next two weeks. The berry season is a bit late this year and with good weather probably will stretch through July 4th.

Berries should be selected which have a reasonable red color, are fairly well shaped, bright and fresh in appearance and are dry and clean.

Oranges and bananas provide the bulk of the fresh fruit at this time. The value of Florida oranges goes down (and price goes up) but California oranges come in to replace them during the summer months.

Canned fruits in best supply are pears, peaches, applesauce and fruit cocktail. These are, generally speaking, the economical choices also. Canned products carry many brand names, making choices difficult. Highly advertised brands are the familiar names, but are usually a bit higher in price.

Brands carrying the stores name are generally Grade A merchandise—the quality is good. It is usually best to try only one can of an unknown brand to see if it satisfies your requirements. The quality of any one brand is fairly uniform during the year. Unfortunately, however, there is little relationship between quality and price in canned foods. The best advice is that when you find a canned product which you like, stick with that brand regardless of whether it is a well known "name" brand, a store brand or a little known one.

Is Piersall Heading For Another Nervous Breakdown?

BOSTON (AP)—What's happening to Cleveland's Jim Piersall—a model of good conduct in spring training, but now at the center of disturbances in each of the Indians' last three series?

One thing certain—emotional upsets aren't hurting his baseball performance. The jittery center-fielder is batting .321, has seven home runs, leads his club in stolen bases and has sparked in the field.

It's also noteworthy that those closest to Piersall—his wife, Mary; Manager Joe Gordon and General Manager Frank Lane—don't seem much worried that Piersall is heading for another nervous and mental breakdown. He was institutionalized after such a breakdown in 1952.

Mrs. Piersall says Jim "leads a perfectly normal life at home."

with their seven children and is "always so pleasant and understanding."

Gordon pointed out Piersall is about 15 pounds under his usual weight. The manager and Lane agree the 30-year-old outfielder, hitting .50 points above his life-time average, is driving himself too hard and exhausting himself physically and emotionally.

Piersall says his side of the recent incidents "has never been told." He said he doesn't "want to be treated any differently than the others."

"I expect to be ridden and I expect to be brushed back," he said. "In fact it's an honor. It has hardly happened to me because I never hit so well before. But I don't expect to be killed."

Here, much abbreviated, is the version Piersall gave Monday to

Jim Tells His Side Of Latest Incidents

Hal Lebovitz, Cleveland Plain Dealer sports writer, in a telephone interview about the trio of outbursts:

May 29 at Detroit—

"I don't mind what the fans throw at me verbally. They can laugh at me, call my mother and father crazy, call me nuts. I can take that. But when they throw ice cubes, paper clips, bolts, golf balls and firecrackers, I'm not nuts enough to stand around and wait to lose an eye."

"I went up to Larry Napp, the umpire at second base, and asked him to make an announcement that if fans kept throwing things the game would be forfeited. He just laughed at me."

May 30 at Chicago—

"Napp was behind the plate and I was on second base when he had happened if that new umpire (Cal) Drummond hadn't stepped in."

"Drummond said 'shut your mouth' and I admit I used a cuss helmets and a bucket out of the dugout, later heaved a ball against Bill Veeck's $350,000 scoreboard, and got himself fined $250.

June 5 in Cleveland vs. Detroit—

"They started on me, I didn't start on them. In the third inning, when I was in the on-deck circle, my plastic helmet was on the ground. Jimmy Dykes (Tiger manager) yelled to the umpire, who made me put it on."

"When I came to the plate, they were yelling at me from their dugout. Dykes was right up there in front. I pointed toward the fence and yelled to him: 'I'm going to hit one out of here.'

"I figured the first pitch would be a curve and I really tried to hit it out. It was so pretty I stood there and watched it go out of the park. I wish my wife had been there to see it. When I got to third I tipped my hat at Dykes and yelled, 'Now get on that one.'"

"Before it was my turn to bat in the fifth a Detroit player—I'm not revealing his name—said to me: 'Jimmy, they're going to stick one in your ear next time. Be careful.'"

"I thought it over and decided to get that new helmet we have, the one with the flaps over the ears."

"The first pitch was inside, but not really too close. Red Wilson (Tiger catcher) started to swear at (Pete) Burnside. Hit this so-and-so show boat," he shouted. The next pitch was over my head."

"Now Wilson became furious. He called Burnside 'gutless' and everything else he could think of. (Umpire John) Flaherty couldn't stop him."

"I said to Wilson: 'If I get hit on the top of the head, I'll kill you with this bat.' Burnside threw the ball behind me, and that's when Flaherty fined him ($50)."

"Wilson was still fuming at Burnside and shouted: 'This time you'd better hit him or I'll hit you.'"

"I turned to Wilson and said, 'When I was in the hospital there were people there not half as bad as you—and they put them away.'

"I guess that made him realize how crazy he must have sounded, because he started to laugh, and everybody on the Tigers bench began to laugh, too, and it was all over."

Orioles Add 1/2-Game To Lead By Beating Senators, 6-1

"WE MISSED a sudden-death playoff by that much," Ben Hogan (right) tells ex-PGA champ Tommy Bolt after Bolt's victory in the $30,000 Memphis Open. Hogan's putt on the final hole of an 18-hole playoff missed by inches and Bolt took top money of $4,300. Bolt carded a 68, Hogan a 69 and Gene Littler a 71. Hogan and Littler received $2,500 each. Chisox Nip Yanks For 4th Straight

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The first week or 10 days of the American League season, Baltimore's Orioles were winning with Jim Gentile's bat and a bunch of kid pitchers, and most everyone said "Forget 'em, it can't last."

Now it's June, the season's almost two months old—and Gentile is still slugging, the kid pitchers are still winning and the Birds lead by 2½ games.

Gentile, who homered for his first hit in the majors back in 1957 with Brooklyn, hit his seventh of the season and drove in three runs Monday night, backdriving a six-hit pitching job by Chuck Estrada for a 6-1 victory over Washington. It was the fifth success in seven games for the Orioles and added a half-game to their lead over the idle second-place Cleveland Indians.

Chicago's third-place White Sox moved within a half-game of the Indians with their fourth straight victory, getting past the New York Yankees 3-2 with an unearned run in the ninth. That was the only run in the game scheduled in the AL.

In the lone National League game, St. Louis rapped the last place Philadelphia Phillies 5-2 for right-handed Larry Jackson's sixth straight victory.

Estrada, now 6-1 with his fourth straight victory, had a two-hit shutout until the seventh and finished with a six-hitter.

The White Sox, 4-0 against the Yankees, beat southpaw Whitey Ford (2-4) after being blanked on three singles for seven innings. Luis Aparicio's third single broke a 2-2 tie in the ninth after two errors by third baseman Gil McDougald and Sherm Lollar's third hit loaded the bases. Gerry Staley (6-1) won his third in a row, in relief of Billy Pierce, although blowing a 2-1 lead when Roger Maris hit his 15th home run, tops in the majors, in the eighth inning. Dick Donovan saved it in the ninth.

The Cardinals closed within a half-game of fourth-place Cincinnati by coming from behind against rookie Chris Short (2-1), making his first start. They scored an unearned run in the fourth, then won it with two in the fifth on Ken Boyer's infield hit, a walk, Hal Smith's single and a double by Curt Flood.

Golden Star Picks Up First Pony League Win

Shea Requests Senate Vote On Kefauver Bill

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Shea, founding father of the Continental League, today appealed to Sen. Kenneth Keating (R-NY) to permit the controversial Kefauver bill to go to the Senate floor for a vote.

The bill, which would curtail player operations by the major leagues by permitting the draft of any player in the minors with four years' experience in organized ball, must go through if the Continental League is to make it, Shea admitted.

Last Friday, Keating kept the bill from reaching a vote by exercising his personal privilege. He asked for a one-week delay.

"I hope Sen. Keating lives up to his word that he is interested in expansion," Shea said. "If he forces further delay while saying he is for expansion, it would be a bad situation."

"I am taking his word that he wanted only a one-week delay. A week delay is all we can stand. Even that was harmful. Another delay would be murder. But I am certain that once it reaches the floor, it will be passed."

Shea's statements followed Continental League President Branch Rickey's endorsement of the bill.

Rickey also blasted American Assn. President Ed Doherty as the "understaker of the American Assn."

Rickey said the American Assn. is demanding one million dollars indemnity for each of the five cities it stands to lose to the new league.

He added that the Continental would move the five American Assn. franchises they are slated to take over to other cities and operate them as farm clubs, thus protecting and insuring the league.

Lopez Points Out Club Had Similar Record Year Ago

NEW YORK (AP) — Why, Manager Al Lopez, wondered today, is everyone worrying about what has happened to his Chicago White Sox?

It wasn't so much that the Pale Hose edged the New York Yankees 3-2 in a real squeaker Monday night. Lopez said he was happy about that but:

"Before we beat the Yanks, our record showed 25-20. That was exactly what our record was a year ago. Of course at that time we were only a game behind Cleveland."

Right now, the White Sox trail Baltimore by 3 games and the Indians by a half game. The Orioles beat the Washington Senators Monday night, so Lopez' operations didn't make any hay.

"I will admit we haven't looked like champions so far," admitted Lopez. "We are a much better club than we've showed. We've got speed, power and now pitching. I think we are about ready to make our move."

Jockey Predicts 2-Horse Race In Belmont Stakes

NEW YORK (AP) — Jockey Bobby Ussery calmly analyzed the Belmont Stakes and came up with (to him) the obvious answer to day.

"Strictly a two-horse race," he said. "Bally Ache and Tompion. And the way Bally Ache beat the other one in the Jersey Derby, there's no doubt as to how it will finish. Bally Ache will win."

Ussery, of course, is prejudiced. He is Bally Ache's jockey.

Bobby has been practically living with Bally Ache. Monday he took the big colt on his final big workout for Saturday's Belmont Stakes and was caught in 1:46 for the mile.

The Belmont has more than ordinary interest for Bally Ache. A victory and he clinches the 3-year-old crown.

Daily Double Returns $102 At Waterford

Big Patricia, a 9-1 shot, found her way home first in the ninth race and combined with heavily favored Sabotage 2nd to bring a $102.60 daily double payoff Monday at Waterford Park.

The 5-8 combination was the second of the day. The first double of 12-6 returned $18 on two favorites — Pajamas in the first and War Bully in the second.

Favorites were the trend Monday with the top price paid on Big Patricia.

A crowd of 2,681 was on hand. Today is Ladies Day at Waterford Park while "Patron's Day" with admission to the track free and prizes will be observed Thursday.

"I am taking his word that he wanted only a one-week delay. A week delay is all we can stand. Even that was harmful. Another delay would be murder. But I am certain that once it reaches the floor, it will be passed."

Better Rescue Plan Discussed

Last week's tragedy at Beaver Creek, where a 12-year-old East End girl drowned, has pointed up the need for more and better rescue equipment, Chief LaVerne Seckman told Calcutta volunteer firemen Monday night.

In order that Calcutta firemen will not have to depend on equipment of other departments in case of future emergencies, the department will purchase a new set of grappling hooks, lifelines, flippers and weight belts to be better prepared, Seckman told 16 firemen at the meeting in the fire station.

Calcutta firemen assisted other area departments in locating the body of Charlotte Ann Fleming in the summer's first drowning last Friday. Firemen already have Scott Air-Paks but lack other important equipment for such emergencies, Seckman advised the group. He complimented firemen for their co-operation and "fine work" in assisting other firemen at Beaver Creek.

Norman Neal, president, presided and said tickets are on sale for a circus in Calcutta July 2 under auspices of the volunteer fire department. Neal reported that the advanced sale of tickets is important as firemen receive more proceeds than from ticket sales at the gates. The Beer's and Barnes' Circus, with 25 trained animal acts, will present afternoon and evening shows.

Firemen will operate a concession stand in a carnival of Lawrenceville volunteer firemen that opens tonight for a week. Calcutta firemen will attend the Lawrenceville parade Friday, send equipment to Salineville for a parade Friday, and attend another parade in Negley on Saturday.

Neal said work is continuing on installing white brick fronting on the fire hall. The project is a third complete, he said. The next meeting will be Monday night at 8.

Firemen will extend the daylight time.

Council At Palestine Extends Daylight Time

EAST PALESTINE — Legislation extending Daylight Saving Time to the last Sunday in October was passed on first reading at a meeting of City Council Monday night.

When it is adopted, the ordinance will repeal present legislation, which calls for ending DST in September.

Council also gave first reading to legislation which provides an automatic $30 monthly pay increase for all city employees and appointive officers who submit their resignations one month prior to retirement date. This will provide a higher retirement fund for the employees.

Council agreed to purchase 550 feet of new fire hose at a cost of $900 but tabled a request from the fire department for a new truck.

The state's special grand jury indicted Dennis for soliciting bribes from Jesse Toles, 43, a one-time Massillon smoke shop operator, about Oct. 1, 1957, and after that date.

The five cent coin is composed of about 25 per cent nickel and 75 per cent copper.

Board Promotes Custodian

School Plant Supervisor Named

The head custodian of Westgate the custodians for appointment on School was elevated to the post of superintendent of buildings and grounds Monday night by the Board of Education, which also adopted a 16-point policy outlining his authority and responsibility.

George Shuffert will assume the new post effective July 1, succeeding the veteran E. M. Troutman, who has resigned. The board previously had asked Troutman to reconsider and delay his resignation until later in the year but he declined.

THE BOARD ALSO appointed Clarence O'Hanlon as head custodian at Westgate, succeeding Shuffert, despite a strong protest from James Moss, who said the board was not living up to an agreement it made in September 1955 with O'Hanlon was the senior on the Westgate staff following Shuffert's elevation and had the advantage of knowing the building. Lawrence said he would accept a motion for the appointment.

After a pause of several seconds, Ashbaugh said, "If he is the senior in the building, then I move for his appointment." It was seconded by Lowe.

The board then adopted the job description for Shuffert's post.

His authority and responsibility includes supervising all custodians, supervising the three bus drivers employed by the board, make periodic inspections of all buildings, supervise minor repairs made by board personnel, obtain substitute custodians, maintain contact with all repair and maintenance jobs being done by outside workmen, make an inventory of custodial supplies, prepare requisitions of custodial supplies for approval of the superintendent and receive requisitions for supplies from individual buildings and distribute them.

THE MOTION TO adopt the job description was made by Moss with a copy of the policy to be presented each custodian and building principal.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Chair-Sitting Penalty Discussed

Some mothers write me that to have the child sit in a chair, unamused, for a definite period (15 minutes for tot 3 or 4; 30 minutes for the child 7 or 8) doesn't work. "He's out of the chair as soon as my back is turned"; "He keeps asking how long before he may get up"; "He yells and screams." By Garry Meyer.

so that I can't stand it," are some of the complaints. He won't leave the chair too soon if he learns that, when found off the chair, he surely gets a sound spanking or paddling. Setting the clock to ring at the proper time may easily correct the second trouble, while steeling yourself so as to show no concern about how he yells or screams will solve the third.

AN OHIO mother writes: "I have talked to other mothers who have experienced this same trouble and would like to have your comments.

"We've already appointed a man to supervise all custodians. Why not give a man a chance to prove himself. If it turns out he is not capable, then we can replace him."

QUESTIONED BY Lowe, Betts said there are "eight or nine" custodians with more service than O'Hanlon, all serving at other buildings.

Lawrence said he considered Westgate "an entity in itself." "It would take a custodian from another building a year to get his feet on the ground."

When openings have been available at Westgate, Betts said he has notified all other custodians but they have declined the transfer, chiefly because they would have to work at night.

Ashbaugh, who arrived late, was briefed on the discussion and commented, "I believe seniority should be carried out. But in the appointment of a head custodian, you try to pick someone you believe can do the job."

MOSS COMMENTED later, "Ralph must have thought the agreement was alright then (1955). We had head custodians then at the high school, Memorial Auditorium and East Junior High. That's one reason we should meet with these fellows and thrash out the problem."

Penalties Suspended For 2 Cited Motorists

Two motorists were given suspended fines on traffic violations Monday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

James Craig of Youngstown drew 2 suspended $10 penalties on charges of displaying a license plate issued to another vehicle and failure to display the plate issued to the truck he was operating when cited Saturday night on W. 8th St. Craig told the court he knew nothing of the irregularities in the registration because the vehicle is owned by his employer.

Henry V. Kmiec of Pittsburgh also was given a suspended $10 fine on a charge of passing at an intersection on Route 30. He was ordered to pay the $6 costs. Kmiec was cited yesterday by the State Highway Patrol.

A contract for re-roofing Lincoln School was awarded conditionally to I. L. Tackett of East Liverpool on his bid of $809.75 provided he can satisfy the superintendent on liability insurance. The lone other bidder, Capehart Brothers, asked $960.

The board also awarded a contract to the Cyclone Fence Division of the American Steel & Wire Co. for a new fence at Westgate School on its bid of $1,715.

The 333-foot fence will run from the west corner of Westgate to the entrance to the Patterson Field ticket booth. It also will run from the southeast corner of the junior high wing to the football field with two gates at the Pennsylvania Railroad crossing. A gate also will be provided between the building and the ticket booth.

THE BOARD ALSO received an estimate of $1,000 for plastering at Lincoln and $300 at Taft. The work will be undertaken before painting starts.

The board also approved the employment of Charles Ridenour, shop teacher, to work for 3 or 4 weeks on some shop improvements at a salary of $1.50 an hour.

Jury Will Get Hargrove Murder Trial Case Today

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Closing arguments come today and a jury of 11 men and one woman begins weighing a verdict in the murder trial of Floyd E. Hargrove, 35. He is accused of firing a sniper bullet that killed his lover's husband last Christmas Eve.

Prosecutor Edward R. Ostrander has said he would ask for the death penalty. The state has argued in the three-week-long trial that Hargrove's love for Mrs. Lois Clark, 31, caused him to kill her husband, Charles R. Clark, 35, a Boy Scout leader and Sunday school superintendent.

The defense has maintained that the bullet accidentally struck Clark at his home in Mentor, probably fired by someone who was target shooting.

Mrs. Clark, one-time model who admitted an eight-month-long affair with Hargrove last year, plans to leave in a newly purchased station wagon at the end of the trial for a vacation trip to California with her four children. Her father-in-law, Carl Clark of Rochester, N.Y., disclosed the vacation plans Monday.
